Weddings

A beautifully arranged wedding at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, Miss Sara Cecilia Hudson of St. Louis, Mo., became the bride of Mr. John C. Lankenau, formerly of New York, but now of Washington. The space about the altar was filled with carnations and palms and a well selected program of wedding music was given as the guests assembled.

The bride and her attendants entered the church to the strains of "Lohengrin" and were met at the altar by the bridegroom and best man. The ceremony was performed by the rector of St. Joseph's Church and was followed by nuptial mass. The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe, the bodice and skirt elaborately embroidered with pearls and pearls. Her tulle veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Fannie Rath, the matron of honor, wore a handsome gown of gray silk covered with net and carried a bouquet of orchids and yellow roses. The flower girl, little Carolyn Rath, wore a dainty frock of net trimmed with lace and carried a basket of white and yellow rose petals, which she scattered in the pathway of the bride. Mr. Paul Sebastian was best man. The wedding breakfast was served in the gold room of the New Ebbitt Hotel.

The bride and groom left at noon for their wedding trip to Atlantic City and New York and on their return will make their home in Washington.

Lieut. Commander Lee T. Warren was married in St. Louis, Mo., on Friday.

Lieut. Commander Warren, a former

Missourian, is stationed in Washington as personal aide to the assistant secretary of the Navy, Col. Roosevelt.

He is the son of Mrs. Mortimer, wife of Col. C. G. Mortimer, stationed at Fort Howard, Md., sister of Mrs. Kingman, wife of Mr. Kingman, general staff, Mrs. Scullen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Festus J. Wade of St. Louis, prominent in society in that city. After a short trip in the south they will return to Washington to live.

The marriage of Miss Edna Grace Schults, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Schults of Clinton, Md., to Mr. Percy E. Ridgell, took place Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Father Minahan of Clinton, Md., officiating, and was followed by a reception to about 150 guests. The house was tastefully decorated with laurel and southern moss. The bride wore a lovely gown with a bouquet of bride roses. Her sister, Miss Hazel Schults, was maid of honor and wore turquoise blue georgette crepe made over pink tulle and carried a picture hat of silver lace, and carried sweetheart roses. Miss Kerrie Schults and Miss Elsie Eastman were bridesmaids, the former wearing a gown of pink georgette crepe, while Miss Eastman was in peach satin draped with old blue velvet. Both wore hats of silver lace and carried pink roses. Mr. Guy Schults was best man. Mr. W. E. Early played the wedding music, assisted by Mr. Antonio Numerickia, violinist.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridgell left later in the evening for a wedding trip to the Cape and will make their home in Washington.

The marriage of Miss Lucile Wallerstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wallerstein, and Mr. Elmer E. Young of this city will take place Sunday, January 29, at noon at the Arlington. The ceremony, which will be followed by a wedding breakfast, will be performed by Rev. Dr. Abram Simon, and will be witnessed by the members of the immediate families of the young couple.

Mrs. Alice Moran announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ethel E. Moran, to Mr. Sam P. Paris, January 20, 1922, Rev. Robt. Brown officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Paris will be at home to their friends at the residence of the bride's mother, 1023 8th street northwest, Thursday, January 26, from 8 to 10 o'clock p.m.

At a quiet wedding which took place last Tuesday at the home of Dr. Abram Simon, Mrs. Amelia Baer was married to Mr. Moses Lulley. The only attendants were the son and daughter-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baer. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lulley left for a wedding trip to New York, Long Beach and Atlantic City. They also will visit the sons of Mr. Lulley, both of whom are well known in Washington. Upon their return they will reside in this city, where they have taken an apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffman of this city announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helene Hoffman, to Mr. William D. Warner, Friday, January 20, at the cathedral in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Warner left immediately after the ceremony for their future home in Philadelphia.

Students of the university are busy preparing for the midyear examinations, which start January 23 and continue for a week.
